

COLLAGES RUSSES

October 24, 2007 – January 05, 2008

PRESS RELEASE

Collages Russes, the inaugural exhibition of Galerie Blue Square, is a collective exhibition of 13 contemporary Russian artists who use collage as a common media to express different dimensions of space, form, color, composition and content.

Collage and its references to the Russian avant-garde movement of the early 20th century continue to play an important role in the creations of each of these artists who are active participants in the contemporary Russian art scene.

The exhibition is dedicated to these artists of Moscow and St. Petersburg and includes Yuri Avvakumov, Tatiana Badanina, Peter Belenok, Aleksander Konstantinov, Leonid Lamm, Oleg Lang, Igor Makarevich, Vladimir Nemukhin, Vladimir Nessedkin, Valery Orlov, Oscar Rabin, Vladimir Titov and Gennady Zubkov. French artist, Guillaume Mathivet, also contributed to the exhibition with a collage created in the gallery on the evening of the vernissage dedicated to the ideas of the Russian avant-garde.
